

Education System

Educational policies are formulated by the Ministry of Education and Culture and approved by the Council of Ministers. Education is provided through pre-primary and primary schooling, secondary general and secondary technical vocational schools, special schools, higher and tertiary education institutions and non-formal institutions and centres.

The main goal of the government is the continuation and implementation of the Educational Reform, aimed at upgrading the quality of the educational system and the public school.

For more details please refer to: www.moec.gov.cy